

F. Toenberg, the genial clerk at the Farmers Store, has resigned his position with this firm and has accepted a position as manager of an elevator at Jessie. He left Monday for Jessie to commence his duties with the elevator company. His many friends wish him much success in his new undertaking. It is expected his family will remain in Walnut for a time at least.