

F. Toenberg and family moved their household goods to Jessie Monday and will move into the hotel there. Mrs. Toenberg and the children left Tuesday while Mr. Toenberg went Monday so as to have things ready for the arrival of the family. The Toenbergs have made their home here for a number of years and their many friends regret their leaving but wish them much success in their new home. Walum's loss will prove Jessie's gain.

---