

P. O. Troseth announces himself in this issue for re-election to the office of County Commissioner from this district. Mr. Troseth has made a very painstaking and conscientious official the past two years, and deserves the unanimous support of all for another term.