

Ralph Wait, who has been drawing one of the Manhattan oil trucks since Mr. Moore went to camp, left Monday night for Erhard, Minn., for a few days' visit with his mother before going to Camp Forest, Lytle, Ga., having been called to report for duty October 20th, 1918.