

WALUM NEWS NOTES.

Erik Heyerdahl arrived home Saturday (7) from Minneapolis where he had been on business.

Geo. J. Jacobson and wife returned Saturday from Fargo where they took in the last days of the Grain Growers convention.

Miss Clara Nelson left Saturday for Fingal to visit relatives.

O. A. Glibertson and Edwin Everson spent the time between trains Saturday at the county seat.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie were Cooperstown passengers Saturday.

Miss Rena Gilman, the famous enactor of plays, presented the "Shepherd of the Hills" Monday evening, which was the last number of a course of entertainments given during the winter months by the Acme Lyceum Bureau. Miss Gilman successfully carried out the several parts of this play in a very interesting way. She also gave a number of humorous sketches which were received with much applause. The Acme Lyceum Bureau have made arrangements to give a much larger and better course here next winter, and judging by their course given this winter there is no doubt but what those who have witnessed the past course will be boosters for the coming course.

Remember the Red Cross Auction Sale Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8:00 o'clock in the Walum Hall.

Joseph Nelson who has been visiting here the past two weeks left for his home in Minnesota Tuesday. Mr. Nelson expects to be called to the colors with the first quota from his home county having been placed in Class One. The Walum Union Sunday School presented Mr. Nelson with a testament and psalm book as is being done with all the boys leaving for the front.

Edwin Everson went to Cooperstown to take his physical examination for the draft army. He returned the same day having passed the examination.

The Walum Union Sunday School expects to give a social and program in the Walum Hall Feb. 22. A portion of the proceeds will go to the Armenian Syrian relief fund and a portion into the Sunday School treasury. The cause is a good one and should receive the support of everyone. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson and children left Thursday for Luverne where she will assist Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Rasmussen move into a restaurant here which they expect to run.

Margaret Hovland and Miss Flacon of Binford, who is visiting at the Hovland home, were Hannaford passengers Thursday.

Miss Josie Stromme and brother Ole spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Thursday.

A Red Cross meeting was held Friday in Walum and arrangements were made to have a Red Cross auction sale in the Walum Hall Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock. Solicitors were elected to canvass the surrounding community for saleable articles to be sold at this sale. All patriotic persons are requested to donate some thing of value from a farm to a box of crockery, etc.

The following canvassers were elected to canvass the territory surrounding their homes and in case anyone is accidentally overlooked in the canvass kindly communicate with your nearest solicitor in order that you may donate your bit to this work of mercy: Emmel Hoffman, Geo. Medley, John H. Haugen, H. G. Rohlwing, Elmer Wallum, W. W. Bothwell, John L. Micklethun and Henry Lewis.

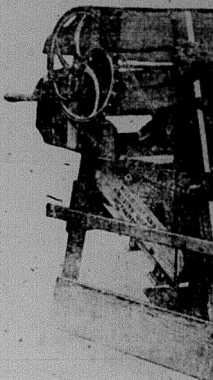

A delicious lunch will be served by the ladies preceding the sale. Mrs. Elmer Wallum and Mrs. Geo. Jacobson being on the refreshment committee. Arrangements have been made for plenty of barn room for horses, and extra preparation is being made to care for an exceptional large crowd at this sale. Arrange to be one of the many.

Auctioneers Miller and Landbloom of Moorhead have promised to cry this sale and the latter will donate a bushel of the best seed corn in stock at his Moorhead seed house. This should be an inducement for all to come.

Remember the date Thursday, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock.

John L. Micklethun leaves Valley City Friday in the morning who

A Demons Fanning M Wednesday

On Wednesday, Jan
farmer to be presen that day there will between the Vaughn a ning Mills. Each are sold on their s and now it will be fo decide which of thes
I want each of you in the on s P
of the grain mill
This v termin. what class will do in different sh
what but also hard or any other kind may want clean d.

Asher A

Motion I

In Jackson's Hall,

Two Good

Show Tuesday and stamps at the post office or depot.

O. M. Rognlien was a Hannaford passenger Saturday.

Melvin Heyerdahl left Saturday for Valley City.

William Angus draws all kinds of