

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Gay Hustad left Monday for his home at Fergus Falls, Minn., where he will visit for a few days. He expects to drive his car back here when he returns.

Grover Campbell left Monday for Fingal on business.

Miss Alma Flaten left Monday for Fargo after spending a short time visiting at the Hovland home.

E. W. Iverson and E. W. Everson motored here from Fargo Monday, in Mr. Iverson's Chalmers which has been in storage at Fargo over winter.

Clifford Wogaland and Ole Stromme returned Tuesday from a couple of days visiting at Valley City.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at the county seat Tuesday in the interests of the I. V. A.

Ermie Larsen spent the time between trains at Hannaford Wednesday having some dental work done.

E. W. Everson was at Jessie Wednesday between trains.

Rudolph Rasmussen came up from Valley City Wednesday for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Carl F. Wernet and Mrs. Julius Larsen were Cooperstown passengers Thursday.

Fred F. Butler and O. A. Gilbertson went to Cooperstown Thursday and returned in Mr. Butler's new Ford.

Mrs. Gilbert Trangsrud and children left for Binford Friday after having spent a few days visiting with relatives.

Genuine FORD repairs always on hand at the MOTOR INN, Walum.

Arne Hovland and daughter Sylvia were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Joe D. Randle arrived here Saturday from a trip to several points in the state where he visited.

Grover Campbell recently bought a pool room at Fingal, N. D., where he expects to move in the near future. Mr. Bert Campbell has leased the Walum pool hall from his brother. He will conduct a first-class pool room with its usual supply of soft drinks, cigars, tobacco, confectionery and the like. Mr. Joe Randle will have charge of both the pool room and take care of his barber shop.

Have you seen the new license tag holder at the MOTOR INN, Walum?

Gilbert Haines came down from Revere Saturday to visit over Sunday here.

The St. Olaf's Lutheran church is being decorated inside and a new church bell is expected soon which will be installed.