

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Miss Werner came up from Dazey Tuesday for an afternoon's visit at the home of her brother Carl.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Wallum left Tuesday for Fargo where Mrs. Wallum had her eyes treated. They returned home Friday.

Chas. Welseman and Arvie Wunderlich motored to Cooperstown Wednesday.

Grace Wogslund and brother Raymond left Thursday for Fargo where Raymond will take treatment for some trouble with his ear.

Miss Belle MacDonald left Thursday for Valley City after having visited at the Bothwell home for some time past.

Mrs. Justin Wallum is helping out at the Walum store.

Mrs. Pat Owens and mother, Mrs. Cross, came up from Dazey Friday for an afternoon's visit with friends and relatives here.

Geo. J. Jacobson left Sunday for Driscoll, N. D., to look after some farming interests he has there.

Carl Sundahl and Johnnie Anderson went to Dazey Saturday evening to spend Sunday. They are erecting the addition to the Farmers State Bank here.

F. Toenberg came down from Jessie Saturday to spend Sunday at his home here.

If you have not renewed your membership in the Red Cross, do it now while it is on your memory. Those receiving the magazine will be likely to miss some numbers of this very interesting publication unless renewals are promptly made.

The Farmers Elevator Co. received two carloads of soft coal Friday.

Arvie Wunderlich has been called to the nation's service and is to report for military duty Thursday, August 29th.

Mr. Canfield arrived Saturday from Minneapolis and will have charge of the Great Western Grain Co.'s elevator here for the coming season.

Threshing was again commenced Monday after the prolonged wet spell.

Mrs. Geo. Medley was at Cooperstown between trains Saturday.

Patronize our advertisers.