

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Mrs. Carl Rasmussen came up from Dazey Monday for a brief visit at the home of Jas. Rasmussen.

Geo. Gunderson left Monday for Fargo after a few days visit at the home of E. W. Everson. Mr. Gunderson will be at Fargo a few days after which he will leave for California to spend the winter.

M. J. Mossing, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mossing and daughter Ethel left Tuesday for their home near Viceroy, Sask., after a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Clara Swenson was a Valley City passenger Tuesday.

Miss Josie Stromme and brother, Ole, spent the time between trains at Hannaford Tuesday.

Mrs. J. P. Danielson left Tuesday for her home at St. John, N. D., having spent the past two weeks here visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Clara Nelson went to Valley City Wednesday.

E. W. Everson left Wednesday for Wisconsin where he will visit with relatives. He expects to stop off at Fargo and the Twin Cities on business.

Rudolph Wallum left Thursday for his home near Holmen, Wis., having been here since last August. While here he made many friends who regretted his leaving.

John G. Steen and family left Friday for Fargo where they will make their home for the balance of the winter. Mr. Steen was agent for the Great Western Grain Co. here during the fall months, being succeeded by Axel Servin.

Herman Peterson was here a few days this week visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ben C. Stromme. He left Friday for Montana where he will be employed on a ranch owned by the Hammer-Condy Co., of Cooperstown.

Miss Clara Rasmussen and Arvie Wunderlich spent the time between trains at Hannaford Friday.

If the Red Cross membership solicitors have accidentally missed you in their canvas of the community, come in and take out your membership or mail your application to O. A. Gilbertson, Secretary, Walum, N. D. The Christmas drive is on in full blast and the Walum Branch wishes to add at least 100 new members to its branch during this campaign. Don't be without a home service flag in your home on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Gilbert Trangrud returned to her home at Cooperstown Saturday after a brief visit with relatives here.

Misses Anna, Selma and Minnie Olson were Hannaford passengers Saturday.