

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Elmer and Carrie Larsen left Wednesday for Seattle, Wash., where they will visit relatives and it is expected they will remain in Seattle for some time as Elmer has secured a position in the Seattle ship yards.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson and Miss Lela Campbell went to Fargo Thursday. They returned home Saturday.

Swen Swenson returned Thursday from Minneapolis where he had been on business.

The Walum Young Peoples Society will meet at the home of Edwin Everson Sunday evening, Dec. 29th. An impromptu program will be given and it is desired that as many attend as possible. Regular meetings have not been held of late on account of the influenza epidemic, but it is expected that regular meetings will be held from now on.

John Overby spent the time between trains at the county seat Friday on business.

Miss Laura Fogderud left Friday for Valley City. She returned home Saturday accompanied by her sister Eva who has been attending the Valley City Normal.

Mrs. Julius Larsen was taken to a Fargo hospital Friday for an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Larsen was just recovering from an attack of the flu when it was found

Amidst all the anxiety of the Holidays be filled for you cheer and hope

FARMERS S

WALUM, NO

Geo. J. Jacobson, Vice President and Cashier

necessary to operate for appendicitis.

Mrs. Ole Broten was at Coopers-town between trains Saturday.

E. W. Iverson left Saturday for Fargo where he will spend Christmas with relatives.

Misses Selma and Minnie Olson were at Cooperstown between trains Saturday shopping.

Miss Myrtle Everson arrived home Monday evening from Kallispell, Mont.

John L. Micklethun left Saturday for Valley City having been here looking after his farm.

Miss Eather Pederson was a Valley City passenger Saturday.

The Red Cross Christmas membership drive has been progressing nicely. However, there are still quite a number who have failed to renew their membership, and it is hoped that we may enroll even more this year than last. If you haven't renewed yours do it now.

A Merry Xmas to all.

Christmas Tree and Program

The Walum Union Sunday School will have a Community Christmas Tree in the Hall Friday evening, December 27th.

The program is a Pageant entitled "The Magic of To-day," representing children of Armenia and Syria suffering from starvation, also showing