

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Get a tank heater at Campbell Bros. Hardware Co., Walum.

Justin Wallum was a Hannaford passenger Monday.

If it's Ludefisk you want we have it. Farmers Store, Walum.

J. E. Jacobson was up from Dazey Tuesday on business.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson and Mrs. O. Anson were Hannaford passengers Friday.

James Carroll returned Friday from Fargo where he has been for treatment.

George R. Rolseth was a Fargo passenger Friday going there on business.

Fred F. Butler returned Monday from Rogers where he spent Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. Melvin Heyerdahl returned Saturday from Fargo where she spent a few days visiting.

Winnifred Tougas returned last Monday to her home at Shepard after a short visit with relatives here.

Mrs. C. A. Evenson spent the time between trains at Hannaford Monday.

Ole Sarsland arrived Friday from Lidgerwood and spent a few days here on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hilburn returned to their home at Mohall, N. D., Friday having visited at the Geo. Medley farm for a few days.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Minneapolis where he expected to meet Geo. Gunderson who recently arrived there from his home in Canada.

WALUM

Carl Heyerdahl returned Saturday from Valley City where he has been for the past week having his broken thumb treated.

Mrs. Geo. Jacobson and Mrs. H. Lewis spent the time between trains at Jessie Wednesday visiting at the Toenberg home.

Axel Everson arrived home from St. John where he spent the past two weeks helping his sister, Mrs. J. P. Danielson pack and ship her household goods here.

Chester Wunderlich went to Jamestown Monday to look after his business interests there. He returned here Saturday. Mr. Wunderlich and family expect to move to Jamestown sometime this week where they will make their home.

CHRIS