

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Justin Wallum was a Hannaford passenger Monday.

If it is good coffee you want, try us. Farmers Store, Walum, N. D.

Geo. J. Jacobson arrived home Tuesday from Minneapolis where he spent a few days on business.

Fred F. Butler spent the time between trains at Jessje Wednesday visiting at the F. Toenberg home.

Johnnie Wallum arrived home Thursday from Fargo where he just recently completed a course at the automobile and tractor school there.

Chester Wallum went to Dazey Thursday evening for a short visit with friends there. He returned home Friday.

Call at our store on one of these days, Thursday, Feb. 19, Friday, the 20th or Saturday the 21st. Farmers Store, Walum, and get a good cup of coffee.

Mrs. F. Toenberg come down from Jessie Wednesday to meet her son Finn who arrived on No. 2 of the Great Northern at Hannaford. They left Thursday for Jessie.

You will no doubt need groceries for spring's work and now is the time to let us figure on your list. Make out a list and bring it in and we will give you our prices in case lots. Farmers Store, Walum.

Mrs. Julius Larsen went to Shepard for a short visit with her parents Monday.

O. A. Gilbertson and Edwin Everson left Monday for St. John to attend the funeral of J. P. Danielson to be held there Wednesday.

For Sale—One Holstein Bull, 12 months old. A good one. Elmer Wallum, Walum, N. D.

Bring in your grocery list to us and we will give you prices that will compete with the mail order houses. Farmers Store, Walum, N. D.

James Rasmussen of Finley left Saturday for Dazey after having visited here for a few days with relatives.

Mrs. E. W. Everson left Friday for St. John, N. D., having been called there to the bed side of her daughter Mrs. Danielson and husband who were very ill, Mr. Danielson having pneumonia and Mrs. Danielson quite seriously ill with the flu. Word reached here Saturday that Mr. Danielson passed away Friday night. It is expected that burial will take place near St. John.

Miss Sylvia Hovland arrived home Saturday from Noonan, N. D., where she is teaching. The schools had been closed on account of the flu.

C. A. Evenson had a narrow escape Thursday while watering his horses. One of the animals kicked Mr. Evenson in the abdomen knocking him down. He was unable to get to the chuse except by crawling so he finally got in and since that time he has been improving fast, of which we are all glad to learn.

If it is a work shirt, overall, jacket, work gloves, cap, or anything in the work line call at the Farmers Store, Walum. They have a complete line.

Miss Annabell Bromberg arrived Tuesday from Revere to make a visit at the Edwin Everson farm, home.

Wm. Nelson came down from Cooperstown Monday and visited with friends here until Tuesday evening when he departed for Fargo on business.

Flax Straw Wanted. Don't destroy it. Wepay $5.00 a ton delivered at Walum for all No. 1 straw. Call or write C. A. Evenson, Walum.