

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Axel Servin left Saturday for Hutchinson, Minn., where he expects to visit for a short time at his home.

Rev. P. A. Thoreson called at the M. O. Wallum home Monday where Mrs. Wallum was then reported to be quite low, but is now improving. Rev. Thoreson went from here to Cooperstown where he was a witness in a probate action.

Arvie Wunderlich was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.

Jacob Sabby came up Tuesday from Valley City to attend the funeral of Nicolai Swenson. He returned to his home in Valley City Thursday.

E. W. Everson left Tuesday for Valley City to attend the annual meeting of the Equity.

Bert McInnes of Dazey transacted business here Tuesday between trains.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Stahl left Wednesday for their home near Pe-kin, N. D., after having made a brief visit at the James Carroll home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jacobson and Mrs. Frank Erickson of Dazey visited at the Werner and Jacobson homes between trains Wednesday.

Miss Grace Wogsland came up from Fargo Thursday to see her new sister.

John Rasmussen arrived Thursday from Medicine Lake, Mont., to visit at the Wm. Anderson home.

Gilbert Heyerdahl returned to his home at Moorhead Thursday after having visited with his home folks.

Miss Josie Stromme was a Hannaford passenger Friday.

The Walum Union Sunday School and L. T. L. will give an entertainment in the Walum Hall Friday, Feb. 22, commencing at 8 o'clock p. m. Refreshments will be served after the entertainment. The proceeds of this event will be divided between the Armenian-Syrian Relief Fund and the Sunday School treasury. The cause is a good one, so come and bring your friends. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner and son Gordon left Friday evening for Dazey where they visited at the J. E. Jacobson home until Saturday.

Leonard Miklethun arrived home Friday having been to St. Louis after enlisting in the aviation service. Leonard passed the required examinations at Fargo, Minneapolis and passed six examining physicians at St. Louis, but the seventh examiner would not pass him on account of a weak shoulder and ankles.

Pete Pederson arrived Friday from Berthold, N. D., to visit with relatives for a short while.

Mrs. Erik Rud came up from Valley City Tuesday.

Mrs. Nels Olson got suddenly sick Friday and was taken to St. Lukes hospital at Fargo on Friday's train. Rev. Thoreson accompanied her.

Ole Vedo, a former resident of Griggs county, arrived Friday from Valley City, where he attended the Equity meeting, to visit with friends and relatives east of town.

Geo. J. Jacobson spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Friday.

E. W. Everson returned home Friday from Cooperstown where he went from Valley City to attend the funeral of A. M. Baldwin.

Mrs. Nicolai Swenson and son Swen were at Cooperstown between trains Friday.

Hilding Wallin arrived Thursday from St. Peter, Minn., where he is attending school, to visit at the Wallin farm.

Most of the new furniture for the St. Olaf church arrived last Monday and will be set up soon.

There will be an entertainment and basket social at the new consolidated school west of town Thursday evening, Feb. 21st.

The Walum Young Peoples Society meets Saturday evening, Feb. 23, in the Walum school house.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie went to Cooperstown Saturday to have some dental work done.