

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Call here and get your farm implements. Farmers Store, Walum.

Finn Toenberg came down from Jessie Monday to spend some time visiting friends here.

Make your poultry pay, get your oyster shells for $1.56 per hundred at Campbell Bros. Hdwe Co., Walum

Carl Heyerdahl shipped a car-load of cattle and hogs to Haggart Tuesday.

All of our goods are of a standard make and of good quality. Farmers Store, Walum.

Visit us, and place your order for a drill, drag or plow. Farmers Store, Walum.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Campbell returned Saturday from Fingal where they spent a couple of days on business.

Yes, we are here to sell you a tractor. Make us a visit. Farmers Store, Walum.

I. P. Fenne, of Sanborn, relieved O. A. Gilbertson, at the depot the past week. Mr. Fenne left Saturday evening for Koldok, N. D., where he is employed in a similar position.

You will no doubt need an overall and jacket for spring's work. Get them at the Farmers Store, Walum.

Campbell Bros Hdwe Co. are having a special price on graniteware, consisting of a large assortment. Take advantage of their special prices and save money.

Fred F. Butler left Saturday for Rogers for an over Sunday visit at the home of his brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie B. Coen left Wednesday for Marinette, Wis., having been called there on account of sickness of Otto Hoffman.

Edwin Everson and O. A. Gilbertson arrived home Saturday from St. John where they attended the funeral of John P. Danielson. Mrs. Danielson is improving as rapidly as can be expected of which we are all glad to learn.

J. W. Canfield has made arrangements with the Bridgeman-Russell Co., of Jamestown, to buy cream for them at this point. Mr. Canfield has received his supplies and is ready to take care of your cream. This company pays the highest market price at all times. Bring in your cream any time.

A good cup of coffee in the morning means a good deal. Try our coffee and prices and you will be our satisfied customer. Farmers Store, Walum.

On account of the lady coffee demonstrator having the flu the coffee demonstration which was to have been held by the Farmers Store the past week could not be held. It is expected that the demonstration will be held at some later date.

The stockholders of the Farmers Co-Operative Mercantile Co. met in the hall over the store Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing a board of directors and to transact such other business as might come before the meeting. The entire old board was re-elected for the ensuing year. Coffee and lunch was served to the stockholders and the meeting was enjoyed immensely by all.

The juice was turned on at Walum Saturday evening, and there were many bright nights in the village. Some of the Walumites nearly failed to retire Saturday night thinking it was still day. The folks at Walum have been waiting for some time for this event, but we now have real lights, and twenty-four-hour service every day, very likely the only town of our size in the state having such service.