

WALUM NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll left Monday for Valley City on a combined business and pleasure trip. From Valley City they went to Wimbledon where they visited with relatives until Friday when they returned home.

E. W. Everson spent the time between trains at Binford on business for the Independent Voters Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson left Wednesday for the Twin Cities where they attended the automobile show.

Miss Lela Campbell left Wednesday to visit with relatives at Edmunds, N. D.

Mrs. Bertha Wunderlich and daughters Lily and Elsie returned Tuesday from Fargo where they have been visiting at the Chester Wunderlich apartments for some time.

New spring goods are arriving daily at the Farmers Store. Better call and look over our line.

Miss Myrtle Everson is clerking temporarily at the Farmers Store during the absence of Manager Werner on a purchasing trip for the corporation.

Mrs. M. O. Wallum and daughter Mrs. C. A. Evenson left Thursday evening for Fargo.

James and Homer Carroll spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

Miss Tillie Iverson came down from Cooperstown Friday for a brief visit with her brother Ernest.

Mrs. Joe Marson was at Hannaford between trains Saturday shopping.

J. W. Canfield has made application for a license to operate a cream station at Walum and expects to commence buying cream in a short time. Mr. Canfield will buy for the Milton Dairy Co. at St Paul and will pay the highest market price for butterfat. This will give the dairymen a chance to sell their cream whether they have large or small lots and receive payment when delivering cream instead of having to wait for returns as is necessary when shipping.

Miss Grace Wogsland and Miss Hanson came up from Valley City Friday for a short visit at the Wogsland home.

Mrs. Arvie Wunderlich visited with relatives between trains at Hannaford Friday.

E. W. Everson returned Saturday from Steele county where he has spent the past few days in the interest of the I. V. A.

Why not have that grocery or general order filled at the Farmers Store where your dollar is worth 100 per cent.

The Ladies Aid of St. Olaf's church will have their annual supper and auction sale in the Walum Hall Friday evening March 7th. There is a large assortment of fancy work and other useful articles to be sold. Remember the date and don't miss it.

Misses Eva Fogderud and Ines Groven arrived Saturday from Valley City where they are attending the Normal school to visit at the home of A. L. Fogderud.

The Walum Young Peoples' Society will meet in the Walum Hall Sunday evening, March 16th. A good program is being prepared and lunch will be served by the ladies.

F. Toenberg returned Monday to Jessie having visited over Sunday with his family here.

Mrs. Albert Rasmussen and children arrived Saturday from Dazey to visit at the home of James Rasmussen.

Dr. Oscar H. Hoffman

Dentist

Phone 52.

Hours 8 to 12 and 1 to 5:30

R. D. BENSON, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon

PHONES:

Office 52

Residence 50

JOHN S AD

Attorney and Counselor-at-Law

COOPERSTOWN, N. DAK.