

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Melvin Heyerdahl returned home Wednesday from Fargo where he attended the Fair.

Fred F. Butler and Elmer Wallum left Wednesday for Fargo.

Edward Hanlan left Wednesday for St. John, N. D., having been called home on account of the illness of his mother.

Alf Juell was a Fargo passenger Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner, Julius Larsen, Ernest Iverson and Mr. and Mrs. Justin Wallum motored to Fargo Friday to take in the Fair. They were accompanied by the Misses Smith of Cooperstown.

The Walum Branch of the Red Cross will have a business meeting, Friday, July 26th, at 8 p. m. in the Walum Hall at which time a report of the work done, financial report and other matters will be made. It is desired that all members attend this meeting. Suggestions for the betterment of the cause will be gladly discussed.

Fred F. Butler returned last Saturday from Minneapolis where he spent the past week on business.

Geo. J. Jacobson arrived home last Saturday from Mandan where he attended the Bankers Convention.

Ole Stromme and Axel Everson left for Fargo Sunday evening to take in the Fair. They returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Alfred Fogderud and brother Edward left Sunday evening for Barron, Wis., for a short visit.

The Farmers State Bank of Walum has received and are displaying their certificate from the Depositors Guaranty Law. All depositors having moneys in banks who qualify and hold certificate are guaranteed protection by the state of funds left with such banks.

Axel Servin arrived Monday from his home at Hutchinson, Minn., and has re-opened the Great Western Grain Co.'s elevator here.

E. W. Everson left Monday for Fargo to attend the Fair.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie returned home Tuesday from Minnesota where they have spent the past six weeks visiting relatives.

W. E. Chamley, auditor for the Great Western Grain Co., was here Tuesday in connection with the company's business.

C. M. Thomsen was at the county seat between trains Wednesday.

Carl L. Rohlwing arrived home from Fargo where he has been the past six weeks under treatment for some nasal trouble.

Geo. J. Jacobson is having cement walks put in around his residence and in front of his yard.

If your membership in the Red Cross has expired—Renew now.