

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Fred F. Butler returned last Saturday from Fargo where he attended a meeting of the Shrine.

Miss Anna Olson left Monday for her home in Wisconsin. She will stop off at Fargo for a brief visit with friends.

Carl F. Werner and O. A. Gilbertson motored to Cooperstown Monday to attend a meeting called by County Chairman Sweger of the War Savings campaign. It is the aim of those in charge to have a meeting in every school house in the county and get pledges for War Savings Stamps which will about equal the last Liberty Loan allotments or $20 per capita. June 28th has been proclaimed National War Savings Day and the campaign is to close on that date.

The Walum Branch of the Red Cross shipment for May consisted of the following: 36 bed shirts, 12 bed jackets, 21 pairs bed socks, 24 comfort bags and 27 pairs socks.

The Union Ladies Aid divided the proceeds of the supper recently held between Walum and Hannaford Red Cross—each getting $38.10.

School election in both Greenfield and Bartley townships proved a close contest. John H. Haugen was elected director for Greenfield with a two-vote lead. Carl F. Werner was the only candidate for treasurer. In the Bartley district Emmel Hoffman was elected director leading his opponent by only two votes and Swen Swenson was elected treasurer.

E. W. Everson left Wednesday for Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Kalland left Wednesday for Fargo where they will have some dental work done.

Mrs. O. M. Rognlien and daughter Josie left Thursday for Minneapolis where they will visit for some time with relatives.

Mrs. Ben C. Stromme arrived home Friday from Fargo where she had been at St. Lukes hospital for the past eleven weeks recovering from an operation.

Emil Nelson, republican candidate for sheriff, was here Tuesday calling on the voters.