

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Remember, ladies, the Red Cross meetings every Friday afternoon in the Red Cross Room over the store. There is considerable work to be done and as many as possible should attend these meetings so the Walum Branch can accomplish its allotment and as much more as possible. You are cordially invited to help in this good work.

Geo. J. Jacobson returned Tuesday from a business trip to Minneapolis.

Wm. G. Brown left Thursday for his home at Branch, Wis., where he will visit for some time.

Misses Lela Campbell and Gerd Toenberg went to Valley City Thursday to have some dental work done. They returned home Saturday.

Mrs. John Broten, of Glenfield, arrived Tuesday to visit in this vicinity with relatives and friends.

Erik Heyerdahl shipped a carload of cattle and sheep to the So. St. Paul market Saturday.

James Rasmussen has been down with influenza the past week, but is now able to be around again.

Mrs. Arne Hovland and daughter Sylvia spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Larsen were Cooperstown passengers Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marson were at Hannaford between trains Monday.