

• • • • •
• WALUM NEWS NOTES •
• • • • •

Martin J. Mossing and Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Mossing arrived last Saturday from Viceroy, Sask., and will visit with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

August Werth took his father and mother to Portal N. D., Monday on their way to Canada where they intended making their home with a daughter who lives there. Upon reaching the line the emigration officers refused to let them enter Canada on account of being Germans and the elder gentleman not having his citizen papers. They were compelled to return home and arrived here Wednesday.

Chester Wallum arrived last Sunday from Camp Dodge where he has been in training. Mr. Wallum looks considerably better after having spent the past two months in camp. Evidently the boys are well taken care of. He returned Thursday evening to camp having only a short furlough.

Miss Emma Flaten of Binford visited for a few days at the Hoyland home and returned to her home at Binford Tuesday.

Miss Tena Regner, county superintendent of schools, visited the Walum School Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Jacobson returned Wednesday from Minneapolis where Mrs. Jacobson has spent the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Danielson, of St. John, N. D., arrived Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Erick Heyerdahl and daughter, Myrtle, left last Saturday for Moorhead to visit with her son, Gilbert.

Mrs. Ben C. Stromme returned from Fargo Tuesday having been in a hospital there.

Fred F. Butler went to Fargo Friday on business.

F. J. Johnston left Friday for Valley City to spend Thanksgiving at his home.

Harold Christensen was a Hannaford passenger Saturday.

Mrs. F. Toenberg and daughter, Gerd, spent between trains at the county seat Saturday.

Mark Hoffman went to Hannaford Saturday on business.