

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

O. A. Gilbertson returned Monday from Fargo having spent the week end there visiting relatives.

Fred F. Butler returned Monday from Rogers where he spent Sunday with relatives.

Bert Campbell left Sunday for Carrington on business. He returned home Saturday.

Misses Penrose and Westerfield spent the time between trains at Cooperstown Monday.

Erik Heyerdahl went to Valley City Monday on business.

E. W. Iverson and Floyd Campbell returned Tuesday from Fargo where they spent a few days visiting and on business.

E. W. Everson returned home Thursday from Towner County where he spent a few days in the interests of the I. V. A.

Erik Heyerdahl returned home Thursday from Valley City.

J. P. Danielson arrived Thursday from St. John where he attended some matters of business.

Get your winter's supply of apples at the Farmers Store, Walum. See their ad elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. Justin Wallum is spending a few days at Luverne visiting friends

Be sure not to forget the St. Olaf Ladies Aid Annual Auction Sale and Dinner in the Walum hall Thursday of this week. Dinner will be served promptly commencing at 12 o'clock noon. Auction will follow dinner. Come prepared to stay all afternoon. Everyone is cordially invited.

Mrs. Oscar Anson from New England, N. D., visited a few days with relatives here this week and left Saturday for Binford where she will visit with relatives there.

Jimmie James is booked in the local hall for a show and dance on Thursday night.

Pete Grotting was a Cooperstown passenger Monday.