

Soren Krag returned home Sunday morning from France having secured his discharge from Uncle Sam's military service. Soren has seen some of the hardships of war, and is glad to get home again. We neglected to mention last week the return of Benny Wilson, another Hannaford boy who has done his bit in the war. It is surely a pleasure to see so many of the boys come home safe and sound after what they have gone through in this war.