

Rev. J. C. Wilson and family were given a farewell party last Friday evening by a number of their friends and members of the Presbyterian congregation. They were presented a library table and a rocking chair as reminders of the occasion and of their many friends in Hannaford and vicinity. They are shipping their household goods to Jamestown this week and will make their home in that city. During his years as pastor of the Presbyterian church here Rev. Wilson and his estimable family have won a large circle of friends who will wish them success in their new field of labor.

---