

Hosea Woodward has been spending the past few days visiting friends in Hannaford. He is going back to his claim in McLean county to dispose of his property there, after which he will go to his old home in Union City, Pa. Hosea is still the same old boy just as sprightly and full of fun as ever. He also brought the news that Roaming Fox, an Indian who has spent several fall seasons in this vicinity, working for August Werth and others, had died of heart failure in October on the Ft. Berthold reservation.
