

Fred A. Sabin

5

Fred A. Sabin, lawyer, and loan and real estate dealer, born at Adrian Mich, in 1856, and was educated in the same city, where he also learned his trade, civil engineering. He came to Dakota in the fall of 1876 and first located in Fargo, and subsequently in 1879 was on the government survey in northern Dakota for five years. In June 1883, he established the business of law, loan and real estate at Poplarville, the county seat of Griggs County. Mr. Sabin owns a half section of land in Clay county, Minn. He is an intelligent and successful young man, and is in partnership with Mr. Campbell of Fargo.

Bibl. Atlas of Dakota. 1884, p 242