

Biography of August Steinborn
--Beatrice Wells

Mr. and Mrs. August Steinborn came to this country in 1881 on the 11th day of May. Mrs. Steinborn was born September 19, 1849. Mr. Steinborn was born February 24, 1847.

They both came from Germany. They came over here in a steam boat and landed in Cleveland, Ohio, where they stayed and worked for two years. Mr. Steinborn could not stand the climate and went to North Dakota to take up land to live on.

They built their house out of sod. It was about 14x10. They used straw and buffalo chips for fuel.

They took their wheat to Valley City to be ground into flour and they would stay there that day and come back the next day. Their descendants are Annie, Herb, Edith, Mable, George, Charley, Willie, and Fred Steinborn.

Mr. Steinborn is now dead but Mrs. Steinborn now lives in the city of Fargo.

PIONEER BIOGRAPHY

August Steinborn

by Beatrice Wells

Mr. and Mrs. August Steinborn came to this country in 1881 on the 11th day of May.

Mrs. Steinborn was born September 19, 1848. Mr. Steinborn was born February 24, 1847.

They both came from Germany.

They came over here in a steam boat and landed in Cleveland, Ohio, where they stayed and worked for two years but Mr. Steinborn could not stand the climate and went to North Dakota to take up land to live on.

They built their house out of sod. It was about 14x10. They used straw and buffalo chips for fuel.

They took their wheat to Valley City to be ground into flour and they would stay there that day and come back the next day.

Their descendants are Annie, Herb, Edith, Mable, George, Charley, Willie, and Fred Steinborn.

Mr. Steinborn is now dead but Mrs. Steinborn now lives in the city of Fargo.

--Beatrice Wells

PIONEER BIOGRAPHY

August Steinborn

Mr. and Mrs. August Steinborn came to this country in 1881 on the 11th day of May.

Mrs. Steinborn was born September 19, 1849. Mr. Steinborn was born February 24, 1847.

They both came from Germany.

They came over here in a steam boat and landed in Cleveland, Ohio, where they stayed and worked for two years but Mr. Steinborn could not stand the climate and went to North Dakota to take up land to live on.

They built their house out of sod. It was about 14 by 10. They used straw and buffalo chips for fuel.

They took their wheat to Valley City to be ground into flour and they would stay there that day and come back the next day.

Their descendants are Annie, Herb, Edith, Mable, George, Charley, Willie, and Fred Steinborn.

Mr. Steinborn is now dead but Mrs. Steinborn now lives in the city of Fargo.

--Beatrice Wells