

Malcolm Turner

Malcolm Turner, a retired farmer living in Courtenay, was born near Utica, Wis., May 2, 1860, a son of Andrew and Rachel Turner, the former a native of Scotland, and the latter was born in Lucelph, Canada. Both settled in Utica in early life and were married there, after which the father engaged in farming. In Civil War he was with 8th + the 14th Wis. Reg. of Inf. and was with Sherman to the sea. He was in both Libby prison and Andersonville prison, and lived only 2 years after the war. His widow died soon afterward, leaving 4 children. Malcolm's brother and sisters were: William, <sup>eldest son</sup> who in 1882 N.D. and afterward returned to Wis.;

Elizabeth, married H. Allen, a Civil War Vet., of Jackson Minn.
Mary, married John Pugh, of Oshkosh, Wis.

After 16, Malcolm wandered and worked at different jobs and places. In 1884 he first came to Buffalo and worked. In 1885 he drove with his oxteam to Foster Co., 18 miles north of Courtenay. Eight people made the trip: Edwin Beens, Ralph Valdes, Dan Clancy, George O'Neal, Edwin McKinnon, Don McKinnon, and Harvey Gee. 6 took up homesteads and proved them. Mr. Turner settled on Sec. 24-145-62.

Malcolm Turner was married Dec 25, 1888, to Miss Isabel Bradford, who was born in Bruce

Malcolm Turner

County, Ontario, Canada in March, 1858. She died in 1902 and left 3 children William, Robert, and Janet.

On July 8, 1912 Mr. Turner married again, this time to Jennie McBride, who was born in Bruce County, Ontario, on Aug. 9, 1860.

Bibl: Condensed from, Lounsbury, Vol. III, 1917, page 892-3.