

Killed When Scaffold Collapses Near Sutton <sup>150</sup>

Special To The Fargo Forum

Cooperstown, N. D. — Robert Napier, 54, Manchester, Ky., was killed Wednesday when a scaffold collapsed near Sutton, N. D., where he was working on the interior of a new grain bin.

S. J. Quam, Griggs county coroner, said Napier fell 47 feet and apparently suffered a broken neck. Injured in the accident was Don Jones, 21, of Camden, Ohio. He was taken to a Jamestown, N. D., hospital.

Sutton is 18 miles west of Cooperstown.