

THE PASSING OF A FINE CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN

In the death of Mr. George Newberry, for many years a resident of Cooperstown and more recently of Jamestown, the community loses a fine gentleman and an earnest Christian character. Mr. Newberry asked nothing from his fellow men but an opportunity to live and serve among them. He did not seek political office and did not acquire great wealth, and his service lay largely in his great faith in humanity, God and the future which was revealed daily in his happy and contented attitude and desire to be helpful to others.

Mr. Newberry came to Cooperstown in the early eighties, moving to Jamestown about seven years ago. Since

Newberry Dies

Cooperstown, N. D.—Mrs. George Newberry, 92, pioneer Stutsman county resident, died here Thursday. Her funeral will be Sunday at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Newberry are the sons and daughters: George Newberry, Mrs. Mabel Bowler, J. E. Christensen and his work as an active member of the First church. Bed-ridden for more than a year, he never lost his quiet faith and contented attitude. The community may never erect a great monument in his memory, the lives of scores and even hundreds will be brighter and better for his example.
