

Once Cooperstown Resident Is Dead

Mrs. Harry Neustel, 33, formerly a resident of Cooperstown, died at Robinson, N. D., where she has lived the last several years, a week ago Saturday.

Born in Cooperstown, May 17, 1903, she was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church here. She was a daughter of Gust Olson, a former Cooperstown taylor.

She was graduated from Cooperstown high school and she taught school five years in the Robinson vicinity.

She was married to Harry Neustel June 1, 1927. They had two children, Richard, 7, and Donna Marie, one week. Her husband also survives.
