Naylor

Dies In West

Mrs. Eugene Naylor, about 73, former Fargoan, died Wednesday at Billings, Mont., where her daughter, Frances Eugenia, is a teacher.

The funeral will be at 2:30 today in St. James Episcopal Church of Wadena, Minn., with Butturff-Bjerke Funeral Home in charge.

Mrs. Naylor, the former Hortense Hind, was married to Mr. Naylor at Wadena Oct. 18, 1905. They moved to Cooperstown, N. D., in 1907, and three years later to Oakes, N. D., where Mr. Naylor was in business 25 years.

In 1935 they came to Fargo, operating the news stand at the bus depot until 1943. In the latter year Mr. Naylor, a past grand master of the North Dakota Masonic grand lodge, was appointed field agent for the Masonic Lodge.

They resided at Madison, Wis., and Augusta, Ga., until 1948 when they returned to Fargo. Mr. Naylor died April 4, 1949, and Mrs. Naylor had made her home with her daughter since.

Miss Naylor is the only immediate survivor.
