

Paul Njaa Dies

On West Coast

Paul Njaa, 60, long-time Coopers-town, N. D., resident and a brother of two Fargoans, died Monday in Spokane, Wash., where he had lived since 1941.

Born at Cooperstown in 1896, Mr. Njaa married Anne Person in June 1929. They had lived at Cooperstown until 1941.

He leaves his wife; three sons, the Rev. Donald Njaa of Rockford, Ill., Paul Jr. of Chicago, and Jason of Spokane; three sisters, Hanna and Pearl of Fargo and Mrs. Clarence (Gudrid) Framstad of Grand Forks, N. D.;

Four brothers, Arnt of Billings, Mont., Sigvald, Hibbing, Minn., Clarence, Cooperstown, and Norman, Grants Pass, Ore.

His mother, Mrs. Karen Njaa of Fargo, died last June at the age of 92.

Mr. Njaa was a member of the Mission Covenant Church in Spokane. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.