

f
0
e
“They also appreciate the aesthetic value of seeing a rare hawk or eagle carrying on nature’s intended work in the field or on the range. It is common to hear them refer to hawks as ‘mousers’ now instead of ‘chicken hawks’ as had been the case for so long.”

He said that a family of falcons catches enough destructive reptiles and mammals each year to far outweigh the few game birds