

EMMA OLSON FUNERAL HELD AT SUTTON WEDNESDAY P.M.

The Sutton community and scores of people throughout the county were shocked and grieved upon learning of the death of Miss Emma Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olson of Sutton. Death came most unexpectedly and after a very brief illness at the Swedish hospital at Minneapolis early Monday morning, May 11th.

Miss Olson, a wonderfully fine young lady of twenty-three years, after finishing school, engaged for three years in the teaching profession, having a place with the school at Glenfield. Last year she determined to enter the Swedish hospital at Minneapolis, where she died, and pursue the profession of a nurse, a work for which she was very well fitted. She continued in this service until her death.

Last week she became ill with scarlet fever. On Sunday her family was notified that her illness was very serious and a sister, Miss Edith, and a brother, Frank, hastened to her side. Death occurred at five o'clock Monday morning.

The remains were returned to Sutton, where funeral services were held yesterday, Wednesday, first at the home at one o'clock and at the Lutheran church at two o'clock. Interment was in the church cemetery. Great numbers of people from many parts of the county were in attendance, attesting to the high esteem in which she was held. Rev. Ludvig Lunde of this place and Rev. John Haaland of Hannaford conducted the funeral services.

ed the funeral services.

Emma Serafit Olson was born near Sutton January 11, 1902, being 23 years and 4 months of age at the time of her death. She was confirmed in the Swedish Mission church on September 27, 1914. After her school work in her own community she attended Minnehaha Academy at Minneapolis, from which she graduated in 1921. Two years later she graduated from the Valley City State Teachers college. Three years were then spent in teaching, the first in the Eastman school and then two years at Glenfield, proving herself a most accomplished teacher. She entered the nurses' training school at the Swedish hospital in September, 1924.

Miss Olson was a member of the Friendship League and Young People's society, and a member of the congregation at the Swedish Tabernacle at Minneapolis. She was a young lady of the greatest worth and one who is going to be very greatly missed in a large circle of friends.

A brother and sister preceded her in death. Her parents, two brothers, and four sisters survive. They are: Frank, Edith, Agda, Mabel, Arthur
