

N. D. Boy, 7, Run Over By Father's Truck, Dies

A 7-year-old Binford, N. D., boy died en route to a Fargo hospital Thursday afternoon from injuries he received when run over by a grain truck about noon on his father's farm.

He is Dennis Ott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart Ott, who farm south of Binford.

The boy's father was driving the truck and Dennis was riding outside on the running board, holding onto the door. Ott was not aware the boy had fallen off until the rear wheel hit something. One of the rear dual wheels passed over the boy's left hip, according to S. J. Quam, Cooperstown, Griggs County coroner. Mr. and Mrs. Ott drove the boy to the Cooperstown hospital, where the family physician decided to have him transferred to Fargo for surgery. He was brought to St. Luke's Hospital by ambulance, but was dead on arrival. The body is at Quam Funeral Home, Cooperstown.
