

maker and his wife a barber.

The play "A Little Clodhopper," was given last Friday night as advertised. One of the members of the cast was taken suddenly ill, Friday, but a substitute was obtained, and under the circumstances the performance was as good as could be expected. The sum of $75 was realized which will apply on the cost of the school furnace. A large crowd attended the dance after the show.

---