Asmus, Tuesday noon. "BE PREPARED" t-11 What more fitting motto could be placed before the boys of the nation 10 than those two words? These two e words embrace the twelve points of the Scout Law. A scout must live a er up to the twelve points of the Scout is Law, which are: A scout is trust worthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, court teous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent toward y God. Besides these twelve laws, a _ scout must do at least "one good s turn daily." e The Binford Troop has been organy ized into three patrols which include 3 27 boys. Manfred Knapp, Harold s Bakke, and Elias Halling have been chosen patrol leaders for the pres-5. ent. Rev. Halling. Dr. Truscott and У d C. F. Asmus have been selected as a Troop Committee to advise and help 7 • k the Scout Master in carrying out his work.
