

an index to returning prosperity.

Buchheit-Bakken company purchased a second-hand safe at McVille last week which has been placed in the company's store to replace the one destroyed by fire a year ago. The bookkeeper has now moved his office from the rear room of the First National bank and is nicely located in the store office.