

regular price of admission.

Stanley Ehlers left Sunday for Hancock, Minnesota, where he will join a travelling orchestra troupe for the winter months. Stanley has become very proficient on the xylophone and drums, and is capable of making good with the best of them. He will be missed by the younger set and his departure will mean a distinct loss to the local orchestra.

A wedding of interest to Binford