

county hunters last Sunday was quite successful, tho not as much as had been hoped for. Those who spent the day in the vicinity of Red Willow lake had 16 to their credit but in addition to that more than a hundred eggs were destroyed. Cooper's hunters were more successful, bagging somewhere in the neighborhood of 200, besides a number of eggs. In all probability another day will be set aside in the near future.

The Bears Community Thru...