

• • • • •
WALUM NEWS NOTES
• • • • •

Miss Selma Olson spent between trains at Hannaford Saturday.

Mrs. Erick Heyerdahl and daughter Myrtle spent the time between trains Saturday at the county seat shopping.

Louis Hagistad was a Cooperstown passenger Saturday where he will visit for a short time before leaving for Norway.

John Broten was a business visitor in town Friday from Glenfield.

The Walum Union Sunday School made a record Sunday, International Go-To-Sunday School day, which probably will not be beat in the county. A very interesting program was given in which Mr. J. W. Witterfield, State Superintendent of Temperance of the North Dakota Sunday School Association, Temperance Department, gave a very interesting talk. He had with him the Association Banner, painted by Mrs. Geo. Medley, and which has been held by Barnes County for sixteen consecutive years, in competitive temperance work. The attendance was as follows: Regular members, 62; visitors, 54; total attendance, 116, with a collection of $5.66.

Miss Caroline Gilbertson left Monday for her home at Moorhead after a brief visit at the home of her brother.

Erik Rud was a Valley City passenger Monday.

Olaf Nelson, who has been working for Elmer Wallum the past few months, left for Minneapolis Wednesday.

Erik Heyerdahl and son Melvin arrived home Wednesday after a short visit at the home of Gilbert Heyerdahl at Moorhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Werner and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Carroll left Wednesday evening for Minneapolis where Mrs. Werner expects to undergo an operation for an ailment which has bothered her considerably for the past few months. Before returning Mr. and Mrs. Carroll will have some dental work attended to.

Geo. J. Jacobson returned Monday from Minneapolis from a combined business and pleasure trip. Mrs. Jacobson remained in Minneapolis and is visiting with relatives.

L. O. Hardesty spent a few hours at Hannaford Thursday on business.

If the parties who have been shooting my tame geese will pay for same will drop the matter otherwise will prosecute. You are known.—
Edwin Everson.

Misses Lilly and Laura Wunderlich spent between trains at Hannaford Friday.

Mrs. Clara Markwood went to Cooperstown Friday.

A young peoples' organization was organized at the home of O. M. Rognlien Sunday evening. Quite a number of young people turned out and the evening was very pleasantly spent, singing being the principal feature.