Humanity's great hope for the future is alone to be realized in improved conditions of mat-rimony. What a profound obligation does this fact involve. Those who realize the responsibility can hardly do better than take advice from Mrs. E. Pinkham whose wonderful remedies for the cure of all diseases peculiar to women are so justly celebrated. Dallas, (Tex.,) Special. At a country dance on Rowlette's creek, on Saturday night, Frank Bullington shot John Streupe to death. Bullington and a companion went to Rowlette's creek and entered the ball room, saying they had not been invited, but had come to "run the dance." Strouge protested against their conduct, upon which Bullington drew his pistol and shot him; through the breast. Stroupe whirled around several times, exclaiming, "Damn him, he has shot me!" He also drew a pistol and fired two wild shots before he fell dead. Both men stood high in the community. Bullington escaped, but a big posse have been scouring the country for him yesterday and to-lay. The feeling of the posse is of a most bitter character, and lears for Bulling on's lie are entertained if he falls into their hands.
