Talking of the President's fishing expedition, the Philadelphia Times is watching with nervous interest to see what President, of course, won't go fishing unless his trowsers fit him.

A few days ago a man in New York was fined $300 for givin tobacco to a giraffe in Central Park. Almost simultaneously a tavern-keeper in Chicago was fined $5 for selling whiskey to children. From these two fines it would appear that the preservation of the morals of the giraffe stands higher than the protection of children.

Commenting upon the present condition of the iron trade in this country, prints a statement to the effect that the facilities for production in this country are largely in excess of the demand and there is not likely to be any demand which shall draw upon the present resources. The manufacture of steel has been so cheapened that steel is everywhere taking the place of iron, and this fact is likely to dispense with many who are now employed in the manufacture of iron, while it must create a demand for laborers in steel manufacture.

Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake's last lecture contained the following: "We women want a chance to exercise our individualities, and are tired of being 'merged,' as the legal phase describes matrimony, with mankind. I saw the other day a stout German, with his pale and feeble wife, get into a crowded horse car. A gentleman rose to give the wife a seat, but the big, fat husband seized it,
