COOPERSTOWN, GRIGGS CO., DAY

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

GOSSIPFROM WASHINGTON. The resignation of Lieut. Col. Guido Ilges

Eighteenth infantry, to take effect immedi-ately, was placed in Gen. Terry's hands on Friday, will reach headquarters of the army about Tuesday, and will be accepted at once. Much regret is expressed in army circles here at the expose in the liges matter, but it was impossible for his warmest triends longer to keep concealed the fact that he has repeatedly duplicated pay ac-counts in St. Paul, Chicago and elsewhere. In the former city accounts to the value of $1,000 were placed in the hands of the bankers Dawson, Smith & Scheffer early in 1822 or late in 1821 and Col Lize starward 1882 or late in 1831. and Col. Ilges afterward drew the money on the same accounts here.

Ex-Treasurer Gilfillan, whose trust company in New York has gone to pieces, is alked of as the successor of commissioner of Internal Revenue Raum. It is scarcely probable that he will come back to the treasury department, where his relations were not particularly pleasant. Secretary Folger thinks a New York man will be appointed, but Deputy Commissioner Rogers, who seems to have the bulk of Pennsylvania in-fluence, stands well in the race.

The secretary of the treasury is about to take up the old Romberg whisky case, for which a proposition to compromise has been pending so long. Both Iowa senators, every member of congress, all the state legis-lature and thousands of citizens of the state unite in petitioning for Romberg's release. Solicitor Raynor is at a loss to know what to do about it.

The friends of Charles Lyman, the new chief examiner of the civil service commission, stated that the publication in reference to the general order which summarily dismissed him from the army for giving descriptive lists of men in his com-pany to an unauthorized person, gives only a part of the story.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Stuyvesant Fish, vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, who arrived at Chicago from New York Thursday, says that Eastern capitalists are greatly alarmed over reports of stagnation in business in the West. Mr. Fish thought that railroad construction had been overdone in the last two years and that building this summer would not be heavy, as Eastern capitalists were a fraid to invest their money in new roads. If the crops turned out all right, he had no doubt that the railroads would continue to do good business in spite of of the increased number of lines.

A common plea jury at Philadelphia gave a verdict for Mark Spieker against a railroad company, for $5,009. Spieker, a travel-ing salesman, took passage for Williamsport, and presented the conductor a return slip of an excursion from Williamsport to Phila-delphia. The conductor refused the ticket, and ejected Spieker in the open country. The judge charged rather against the eject-ment of the holder of the ticket in a rural district, and amid a drenching rain.

RECORD OF CASUALTIES. Recently Capt. William McIntyre lost $125,000 in cash, bonds and mining stocks out of his pocket in the Ashland house, New York. One of the hotel men said that the captain was so accustomed to carry large sums of money that he did not take the pre-caution to button his pocket. On two or three other occasions he has met with a sim-ilar loss. The captain says the finder of his property will not be benefited to any error property will not be benefited to any great extent, as there was only $470 in cash in the pocket-book, but $60,000 were in bonds and stocks on which payment had been stopped. The Jackson Iron company's furnace, located at Fayette, Mich., on Big Bay Denoquette, was discovered to be on fire at 6 quette, was discovered to be on hre at 6 o'clock last Saturday evening. The flames spread with such rapidity that it was im-possible to arrest them, and the furnace was totally destroyed. The fire originated in the charcoal sheds connected with the furnace. The loss is estimated at $300,000; no incurace no insurance,

The iron steamship, Mississippi, owned by the Oregon Improvement company, was burned at Seattle, Wash. Ter., with 1,100 tons of coal. The fire spread to the coal bunkers, burning 500 feet. The chief engi-neer was burned to death. The bunker timbers fell, killing one man and injuring conthest another.

A disastrous fire broke out at Qu'Appelle an important point on the Canadian Pacific line on the 14th inst. The emigrant shed, warehouses, and a large quantity of freight were consumed. Loss $100,000. The town is 300 miles west of Winnipeg.

FOREIGN NEWS NOTES.

The London Times commenting on a late speech by Gen. Grant, in which he alluded to the Irish question, urges the American people to fairly judge the situation. It people to fairly judge the situation. It claims: "England has been generous and yielded much.but cannot yield to secession. The only honest denutciation by Irishmen of English relates to bygone men and times. We do not ask the United States to put down the organized ruffanism which pre-tends to impunity and encouragement un-der their flag. If they do not bestir them-selves for their own character and comfort, they are little like'y to do so to oblige Eng-land; but they should recognize the fact that the whole of England is convinced that the government has chalt generously that the government has cealt generously with Ireland, but must resist the demand of secessionists. Americans do not, in their hearts, believe all Englismen are hy pocrites and tyrants; and should consider the effect of reckless language and ccase saying what they do not think."

LIEUT, COL. GUIDO ILGES.

A Sketch of the Unpleasant Causes of His Resignation and of His Bril. liant Military Career.

Washington special: The resignation of Col. Guido Ilges, Eighteenth infantry, has been received at the department. As his unconditional resignation was called for by the secretary of war, it will no doubt be accepted by the president at once. Information received at the war department corroborates the statement already made in the Pioneer Press regarding the reason for Col. Ilges' peremptory resignation. It is to the effect that he hypothecated at least eight pay accounts for periods for which he has since accounts for periods for which he has since drawn his pay in person, amounting to over $500. Besides this he borrowed con-siderable amounts of money while here last year, which he gave notes for, and has made no efforts to repay, although re-peatedly urged to do so. He recently ten-dered his resignation, to take effect Jan. 1 next, and asked that leave be granted him until that date. Secretary Lincoln how-ver, telegraphed Col. Ilges to the effect that if he tendered his resignation to take effect if he tendered his resignation to take effect inst., unroofing or demolishing buildings at once, it would be accepted, otherwise he would be tried by court martial for conduct for a distance of two miles, the track of the unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, in duplicating his pay accounts as above stated. Col. Ilges is a native of Prussia, an ex-of-ficer of the Prussian army and coming into this country, was appointed a captain in the Fourteenth Infantry, May 14, 1861, accept-a late start, but will probably get under the string." Mr. Thomas M. Pugh, late receiver of the Fargo land office, will soon depart from of clergyman to curb the excited feelings of the people and urge justice and moderation. The clergy are not permitted to depart from these rules, and join and promote any movement inconsistent with them. Collections to relieve distress are permitted, but subscriptions to infiame passions are condemned. The clergy must hold aloof, when it is plain that by such movements hatred and dissension are aroused, or distinguished persons insulted, and when crimes and murders go uncen-sured, and when patriotism is measured by sured, and when patriotism is measured by the amount subscribed, for people are thereby intimidated. Therefore, the Parnell fund is disapproved and no clergymen should recommend subscriptions thereto or promote it

It is stated that Archbishop Cooke, on his return to Ireland, will visit Cardinal Mc-Cate, and the latter will come here to confer with the pope, as soon as his health will permit.

JOE BRADY'S EXECUTION.

The Convicted Murderer of Cavendish and Burke Successfully Hanged in Dublin.

Dublin Telegram 14th .-- Joe Brady was anged at 8 this morning. A vast concourse gathered outside the prison yard in which Brady was executed this morning. A strong force of cavalry infantry and police were present to preserve order. There was no attempt at disturbance, however. The morning opened beautifully, but there were showers at about the time the execution took place. Brady rose at 6 o'clock. At 6:35 Cannon Kennedy, of St. James Church and Father O'Reilly administered the sacrament to the condemned man. The three remained praying until the arrival of the hangman. Brady submitted quietly while his arms man. Brady submitted quietly while his arms were being pinioned, and walked slowly and unflinchingly to the scaffold. The black flag, indicating that the execution had taken place, was hoisted over the prison at 8:30. Almost immediately after the flag was raised a hearse and coach with mourn-ers were seen at a distance coming in the direction of the prison. The police ers were seen at a distance coming in the direction of the prison. The police, however, interfered and prevented the ve-bicles from approaching. There had been reports circulating that after the hanging of Drach the friends would and average to avoite Brady his friends would endeavor to excite the people to a demonstration by parading an empty hearse through the city. Brady was visited by his mother last evening. She was heard to exclaim, "Mind, Joe, no state-ment!" Brady smiled and replied: "Don't be foolish: do you think Lange fool?" It is stated the mother threatened to dis-own her same is a stated the mother threatened to dis-

It is stated the mother threatened to dis-own her son if he gave the government any information. A wreath of flowers was re-ceived by Brady, to which was attached a card bearing an expression of grief at his face, from Irishmen living at Liverpool. Brady made no statement to the jail chap-lain or to the governor of the prison. One of the last things he did was to write a let-ter to his mother. He carried a prayer-book to the scatfold, and was thoroughly resigned and firm. His body fell nine feet and his death was instantaneous. Brady was dressed in the same clothes he wore during his trial. The number of persons in the crowd outside the jail, it was estimated, reached 10,000. The throng is said to have been even greater than any of those which collected when exthrong is said to have been even greater than any of those which collected when ex-ecutions were public. At the moment a black flag was seen over the jail a cry was raised of "Hats off," and every head was uncovered. The crowd shortly afterward dispersed quietly. The verdict of the coro-ner's jury was that Brady's death was available a multire of the spinel cord. an per set of the spinal cord. A gury was that Brady's death was caused by a rupture of the spinal cord. A juryman stated that the features of the dead man were slightly swollen and his eyes protruded. His tongue was half cut between his teeth.

Edward McCaffrey, who was last week ar-raigned on the same charge, withdrew his plea of not guilty and substituted the plea of guilty. Sentences deferred. Thomas Martin, indicted for conspiracy to murder, pleaded guilty, but was allowed his liberty on his undertaking to leave the country.

Humiliation of a Plagiarist.

The publication of the following card , in Wednesday's issue of the Yale college News at New Haven has caused great excitement in college circles.

I hereby resign my membership in the Ohi Delta Theta. The reason for this step is the discovery of three instances of plagia-rism which have appeared over my signa-ture in the Yale Literary Magazine. I plead nothing in contention ture in the Yale Literary Magazine. I plead nothing in extenuation, and simply ask credit for what I have really done in writ-ing. H. r. PALMER. This bright young genius hails from Sioux City, Iowa. He was editor of the lit-erary magazine and aspired to be known as a literary genius. On the discovery of the plagiarism he was summarily expelled from the society and advised to leave the town at once. He has done this, and no one seems te know where he has gone.
