The secretary of the treasury has decided to stop the issue of the New York series of gold certificates. Chicago has been clamoring for a distinctive i-sue, which the Secretary has persistently refused, and this has been no small tactor in causing the withdrawal of the New York issue with the signature of Mr. Acton. As fast as those already put into circulation from Naw York come to hand in the regular process of re-demption they will be destroyed, and cer-tificates of the Washington series issued in Cold Compels a Murderer to Surrender.

Ottumwa, Iowa, Special:-There has been great excitement over the murder of Turn key Manning by the burglar Williams. The search has been continued vigorously, and parties are still on: after him. On the even ing of the 31 the murderer walked into the office of the chief of police and gave himself up. He has been concealed in a barn deep in the hay near the jail. Police officers had searched the hay and were right over him once. Both feet are frozen and the severe cold was too much for him. All is quiet to-night, and very few people are aware of the fact that Williams is in the jail. The officers are keeping it as still as possible, for tear of a lynching bee.

The Garned Church,

Washington Special: The dedication of the Sarield Memorial church will take place fan. 20, instead of Jan. 13, as intended The building, as completed, is one of the bardsomest church editices in Washington. The main features of the exercises will be Decicatory address by President W. K. Pendleton, I.L. D., of Bethany coffere, West Viginia, the institution founded by Alexander Campbell, of which President Garfield was a trustee; a historical sketch of the church and the movement to build the present structure by ex-Goy. Mr. Webster used to t II with great zest an incident in his professional life, to illusstrate how past studies may, prove of gire t service in an emergency. While practe-ing in New Hampshire, a blacksmith em-ployed him to defend a contisted with. The case was such a complicated one that he was obliged to order books from Boston at an expense of $50, in order to acquaint himself with and to settle the legal principles involved He won the case, and as the sum inv. lved was small, charged $15 for services, and was therefore large y out of packet. Many years after, when massing through New York, he was consulted by Auron Burr.

A MYSTERY OF THE SEA.

The Fate Which Overtook the "City of Boston."-Captain Murray's Ideas and Experiences.

A few years ago, the City of Boston sailed from harbor, crowded with an expect at throng of passengers bound for a foreign shore.

She never entered port.

The mystery of her untimely end grows deeper as the years increase and the Atlantic voyager, when the fierce winds howl around and danger is im . inent on every hand shudders as the name and mysterious fate of that magnificent vessel are alluded to.

Our reporter, on a recent visit to New York, took lunch with Captain George Siddons Murray, on board the Alaska, of the Guion line. Captain Murray is a man of stalwart build, well-knit frame and cheery, genial disposition. He has been a constant voyager for a quarter of a century were helf of that time having here tury, over half of that time having been in the trans Atlantic service. In the course of the conversation over the well-spread table, the mystery of the City of Roston was alluded to Boston was alluded to.

"Yes," remarked the captain, "I shall never forget the last night we saw that ill-fated vessel. I was chief officer of the City of Antworp. On the day we sighted the City of Boston a furious south east hurricane set in. Both vessels is ored hard., The sea seemed determined to sweep away every vestige of life. When day ended the gale did not abate, and everything was lashed for a night of unusual jury. Our good ship was turned to the south to avoid the possibility of ice-bergs. The City of Boston, however, undoubtedly went to the north, Her boats, life-preservers and rafts were all securely lashed; and when she went down, everything went with her, never to re-appear until the sea gives up its dead."

"What, in your opinion, Captain, was the cause of the loss of the City of Bos-

"The City of Limerick, in almost precisely the same latitude, a few days liter, found the sea full of floating ice; and I have no doubt the City of Boston collided with the ice, and sunk immediately. Captain Murray has been in command of the Alaska ever since she was put in commission and feels justly proud of his noble ship. She carries thousands of passengers every year, and has greatly popularized the Williams & Guion line. Remarking upon the bronzed and Remarking upon the bronzed and healthy appearance of the captain, the reporter said that sea life did not seem to be a very great physical trial.

No! But a person's appearance is not always a trustworthy indication of his physical condition. For seven years I have been in many respects very much out of sorts with myself. At certain times I was so lame that it was deficult for me to move around. I could a arcely straighten up. I did not know what the trouble was, and though I performed all my duties randomly as the straighten to the trouble was and though a straighten to the straighten to th all my duties regularly and satisfactorily, yet I felt that I might some day be over-taken with some serious prostrating disorder. These troubles inc eased. I telt dull and then, again, shooting pains through my arms and limbs. Possibly the next day I would feel flushed and unaccountably uneasy and the day following chilly and despondent. This continued until last December, when I was prostrated soon after leaving Queens-town, and for the remainder of the voyage wasa he'pless, pitifu' sufferer. In January last, a triend who made that voyage with me, wrote me a letter urging me to try a new course of treatment. I gladly accepted his counsel, and for the last seven months have given thorough and business-like attention to the recovery of my natural beatth; and to-day, I have the proud satisfaction of saying to you that the lame back, the strange feeling, tile sciatic rheumatism which have so long order's Safe Rheumatic Cure which entirely eradicated all rheumatic poison from my system. Indeed, to me, it seems that it has worked wonders, and I therefore most cordially commend it."

"And you have no trouble now in a year.

Not the least. I am as sound as a bullet and I feel specially thankful over the fact because I believe rheunatic and kidney disease is in the blood of my family, I was dreadfully shocked on my last arrival in Liverpool to learn that my brother, who is a wealthy China teamerchant, had suddenly died of Bright's disease of the kidneys, and consider myself extremely fortunate in having taken my trouble in time and before any more serious effects were possible.'

The conversation drifted to other topics, and as the writer watched the tace before him, so strong in all its outlines and ics, and as the writer watched the face before him, so strong in all its outlines and yet so geneal, and thought of the innumerable exposures and hardships to wrich its owner had been exposed, he instinctively wished all who are suffering instinctively wished all who are suffering continued and the man and the suffering continued and the man and the suffering continued and continued and the man content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering continued and change in the man. Check the suffering continued and change in the man content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering continued and change in the man content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering content of the instinctively wished all who are suffering content of the instinctive content of the ins so common might know of Captain Marray's experience and the means by which he had been restored. Pain is a com-mon thing in this world, but far too many endure it when they might just as well avoid it. It is a false philosophy which teaches us to endure when we can just as readily avoid. So thought the hearty captain of the Alaska, so thinks the writer and acceptable of the Alaska. ter and so should all others think who desire happiness and a long life.
