Ploncer Press special: Delegate Raymond, of Dakota, appears to have been the most successful member in securing legislation, for although he has no vote be secured the passage of two bills for the benefit of that territory, while his share of legislature.

The two bills, the passage of which he secured, were to provide additional judgers for Dakota, and to double the membership of the legislature.

From this showing alone, it is evident that Raymond attends to business and is a thoroughly efficient representative. On the other hand, there is no call for hydrophobiaing because Pettigrew is again in the field. The St Paul Globes says he will receive the congressional nomination September 17th. The Fargo Republican says he has not the remotest chance of receiving a nomination—that Pettigrew understands this fact himself. The Republican refers to him as an arch conspirator that has been repudiated by his own section. This is all nonsense. The cock-eyed son of destiny and John Kelly discovered that the party is greater than its most notorious exponents. The platform is, from a democratic standpoint, a good one, and the nominees good enough to be beaten. Mr. Cleveland would appear rather insignificant if brought into contact with Blaine in any Massachusetts during the nominations. brought into contact with Blaine in any intellectual exercise, although, it is believed that, physically, he can knock James out in one round. Mr. Hendricks is a reminiscence of the campaign of 1876, and is supposed to play the Red Rag to the defrauded democracy's Bull. He is yet of sound mind and memory, and physically a trifle more robust than the Sage of Gramercy. The fate of the ticket is assured, but "there is hope of a tree if it be cut down," Iver Jacobson, attorney for contestant. 21-20

John N. Jorgensen. "there is hope of a tree if it be cut down,

The republican territorial committee met at St. Paul, July 12th. Aberdeen, Brookings, Mitchell, Jamestown, Big Stone City, all applied for the convention; but by ballot Pierre was selected, and the time for holding the convention, September 17th. A lively contest oc curred over the basis of representation. The south contended for the full vote of two years ago as the basis, while the north for the vote for Raymond. The south carried the day, and representation as to the number of delegates, was determined upon as follows, by counties: Aurora 5, Barnes 8, Beadle 5, Bon Homme 8, Brookings 9, Brown 7, Brule 5, Burleigh 7, Billings 2, Butte 2, Charles Mix 3, Campbell 2, Cass 13, Cavalier 2, Clark 4, Clay 7, Codington 6, Custer 4, Davidson 6, Day 3, Dickey 3, Douglas 3, Deuel 4, Emmons 2 Faulk 2, Foster 2, Fall River 2, Grand Forks 11, Grant 8, Griggs 6, Hamlin 4, Hand 5, Hanson 4, Hutchinson 5, Hughes 4, Hyde 2, Kidder 3, Kingsbury 6, Jerrauld 2, Lake 6, La-Moure 3, Lawrence 21, Logan 2, Lincoln 8, McCook 6, McLean 2, McPherson 2, Miner 8, Mercer 2, Minnehaha 14, Moody 7, Morton 5, Nelson 2, Pembina 8, Pennington 6, Potter 2, Ramsey 5, Richland 6, Roberts 3, Rolette 2, Sanborn 2, Sargent 2, Spink 7, Stark 2, Steele 2, Stutsmittee was controlled in St Paul by the man 7, Sully 2, Towner 2, Traill 10, South, it does not follow but that the Turner 8, Union 8, Walsh 13, Walworth
