The Sanborn Enterprise has entered upon its fourth year. Newspaper boomerangs have started from nowhere, described a grand flight in space. among the constellations, and returned to nothingness; but the Enterprise is always on deck, and is a credit to its town and county.

The Devils Lake Democrat is at hand, published by a "company." It is noticeable that all democratic papers in Dakota are called "The Democrat." Fortunately for brevity and perspicuity in exchange editing, "Republican" is not the headline of all our republican exchanges. You can generally tell something about the politics of a paper by its editorials. The new paper compare favorably with its contemporaries in make-up, and shows enterprise in tackling a full field, late in the fall.

We have received the "Last Message to the House of Israel," or Advent Church, from A. J. Rawson, Chicago, Ill. January 4, 1885. is the day set for the general shaking up, and destruction of all things. It is only a few weeks ago that we were sued in a justice court for $9; and now we get a summons that might have saved us a heap of trouble had it come earlier. We have been renewing notes, and sort of fixing up to run a year or two longer, which we would not have done had we supposed that our creditors would be shaken up before they could get out an execution. Let them beware! For further particulars see small bills.

EVERY THING THE FARMER NEEDS

Edwards cited the case of a Scotchman who invested $100,000 in land near Ayr. Dak. His first crop of 18,000 bushels of wheat, was shipped in cars to Duluth, each car being especially guarded in transit. Special bins were procured, and by keeping men constantly on guard at great expense, the grain finally reached Scotland without being doctored. As a result he sold his crop on the open market at 9 shillings per quarter more than was paid for the same grade of the so-called same wheat, which had been subjected to the manipulations of the elevator men and transit agents .- Ex.

The division and admission business is getting tiresome. Change the spots of the leopard; set the democratic senators and congressmen to singing hymns; wipe out the hostility of a pugilist with seven ribs broken. both eyes closed, nose smashed, skull fractured, who triumphs because the friends of his antagonist have hit him with a slung shot,-and then expect party lines to be ignored in congress at this session. The republican party must take the medicine that has been brewing for twenty-four years; and Dakota, as ultra republican, will have to carry on its broad shoulders the heaviest burdens of the party. The Northwest can not afford to see division forever put aside by the admission of the territory as a whole, and we shall have to wait until the new party lines are drawn, the democrats recover from their intoxicating victory, or the republicans triumph.
