She was requested to send them a photograph of the late Senator, to be used in the book of eulogies delivered in congress after the death of her husband. The photograph came in due time, and the officials were astonished to find that it represented him as he appeared twenty years ago. Mrs. Logan has peremptorily declined to furnish a later picture of the Set. ator. The publication of the book is therefore delayed and may be deferred for months.

President Cleveland has addressed a letter to Mrs. J. R. Roberts, widow of the late President of Liberia, who is seeking aid for the establishment of a hospital at aid for the establishment of a hospital at Monrovia, in which he says: "Liberia is so distinctly the outgrowth of the kindly and generous sentiments of the people of the United States that everything which pertains to the well-being of that young republic should appeal to our sympathy and benevolence. The hospital, which it is proposed to erect, seems to me to be such an important instrumentality in well directed charity, that I desire the acceptance of the enclosed contribution to the enterprise."

The appointments on the Inter-State Commerce Commission are generally approved. Senator Edmunds is especially happy at the appointment of Mr. Walker; Jay Gould heartly commends the selection of Judge Cooley, is pleased with Schoonmaker and thinks Col. Morrison an able, honest man: Chauncey M. Depew thinks the selections are admirable and does not see how the President could have made a botter choice: President Harris, of the Northern Pacific: "The President has done eminently well:" President Huntington Southern Pacific: "The President has been fortunate in getting such men to serve on the Commission;" President Cable of the Rock Island & Pacific, is fully satisfied that the board will look carefully after the interests of the people and at the same time be just to the railroads: H. H. Porter, Chicago & Indianapolis, "I regard the appointments as safe and wise." The Commission will convene for its first meeting about April 1. proved. Senator Edmunds is especially
