Happiness.

The foundation of all happiness is health. A man with an imperfect digestion may be a millionaire, may be the husband of an angel and the father of half a dose cheruba, and yet be mis-rable if he be troubled with dyspepsia, or any of the disorders arising from imperfect digestion or a sluggish liver. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are the salest and surest remedy for these morbid conditions. Being purely vegetable, they are perfectly harmless.

St. Mathew is supposed to have suffered martyrdom, or was slain with the sword at the city of Ethiopia, in Egypt.

St. Luke was hanged upon an olive tree, in Greece. St. John was put into a caldron of boiling oil at Rome and escaped death. He afterward dicd a natural death at Ephesus, in Asia.

St. James the Great was beheaded at Jerusalem.

St. James the Less was thrown from a pinnacle or wing of the temple, and then beaten to death with a fuller's club.

St. Philip was hanged up against a pillar at Hierapolis, a city of Phrygia. St. Bartholomew was flayed alive by the command of a barbarous king.

St. Andrew was bound to a cross, whence he preached unto the people until he expired.

St. Thomas was run through the body with a lance, at Coromandel, in the East Indies. St. Jude was shot to death with ATTOWS.

St. Simeon Zealot was crucified in Persia.

He was a gushing, exquisitely refined young man talking to a demure, tender eyed young maiden at a village pienic. "Ah," he said, "this gives me joy. I am so fund of rural scenes and rural joys. They are so simple, so unaffected, so in harmony with what I think all our lives ought to be. You lead such pure, simple lives here, and are so free from the gross, contaminating influences of city life. City girls shock me with their boldness, their slang, their—ah, I doubt if your rural maidens know the meaning of the word 'slang'; you, I am sure' do not."

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and infiamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility.
