

Carl Nelson, Walum, Dies

WALUM, N. D. — Carl Anton Nelson, 80, resident of this community since 1881, died Thursday in a hospital at Cooperstown, N. D. He had been ill three years.

Funeral service will be at 2 Sunday in St. Olaf Lutheran Church, the Rev. E. L. Bersagel officiating. Quam Funeral Home of Cooperstown is in charge.

Mr. Nelson was born Oct. 9, 1874, at Farmington, Minn., and came to North Dakota with his parents in 1881, settling on a farm near Walum.

He was a grain dealer for 27 years at Walum, served as postmaster for three years and was agent and mail carrier for the Northern Pacific Railway here. He was clerk of Greenfield Township 55 years and served as Griggs County commissioner seven years.

Surviving are a son, Percy of Walum, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Markuson, Panama Canal Zone. Mrs. Nelson died in 1917.

Dies

Mrs. E. U. former Fa at Billing daughter, teacher.

The fune day in S Church of Butturff-B. charge.

Mrs. Nay Hind, was at Wadena moved to 1907, and Oakes, N. was in bus

In 1935 operating bus depot u year Mr. N ter of the grand lodg agent for t

They res and August they return lor died A Naylor had her daughter

Miss Nay ate survivo